Item 1. Introduction	Black Swift Group, LLC (“Black Swift”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.
Item 2. Relationships and Services	What investment services and advice can you provide me? Black Swift provides investment advisory services primarily for high net worth individuals, corporations, trusts, foundations, and other entities through separately managed accounts (“SMA”). We also provide investment advisory services to five private funds, the Black Swift Credit Opportunity Fund, LP, the Black Swift Special Situations Fund, LP, the Black Swift Healthier Focus Fund, LP, the Black Swift Partners Fund, LP, and the Pro Cyclist Fund, LP. Monitoring As part of our services, we regularly monitor performance and portfolio risk using both off-the shelf and proprietary tools and systems. We conduct both fundamental and technical analysis across asset classes at both the macro and micro level. Black Swift actively monitors a broad range of market, sector, and economic indicators and data sources to determine optimal portfolio investment allocations for targeted levels of risk. Investment Authority Our clients typically grant us ongoing discretionary authority to manage their accounts, which means that we can buy and sell investments on behalf of our clients without seeking permission on a trade by trade basis. Limited Investment Offering We do not limit investment advice to only our proprietary products but offer a full range of investment advisory services. We also offer advice, to qualified clients, on investing in our proprietary funds. Account Minimums and Other Requirements Generally, we intend our client relationships to have a minimum of USD $1,000,000 of assets under management. We may accept SMAs below the minimum requirements or may retain accounts that have dropped below this minimum requirement due to changes in asset prices. SMAs that have family, corporate or other relationships may be aggregated for purposes of the minimum account requirement. Additional information about our services can be found on Part 2A of our Form ADV, which is available at Black Swift Group, LLC ADV. Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional— <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?● How will you choose investments to recommend to me?● What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?
Item 3A. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct	A. What fees will I pay? In consideration of our advisory services, we generally charge management fees in an annualized amount of 1% of assets under management. Fees are paid quarterly in advance based on the account values at the start of each quarter. Our firm’s fees increase as client accounts grow, so we have an incentive to encourage our clients to increase the amount of assets in the accounts that are under our management. Additional information about our firm’s fees are included in Item 5 of Part 2 of Form ADV, available at Black Swift Group, LLC ADV. In addition to our investment management fee, clients bear transaction fees when we buy or sell investments. Clients also pay fees to the broker-dealer or bank that maintains each account (called “custody” fees). Our firm often selects and purchases mutual funds and exchange traded funds for a portion of clients’ portfolios. Such investment vehicles incur their own management, transaction, and administrative fees and expenses, and those fees and expenses are indirectly borne by the investors in those vehicles, including our clients.
